Can you qualify for an Allied Level-Funded health plan?

Allied plans are medically underwritten to determine rates and group eligibility.

Questions about your group?

Yes No*

If no, you are not an eligible employer group for this plan.

2. Do you contribute at least 75% of the cost of coverage for your employees?

If no, individual health plans might be a better option for you.

3. General Group Health — Do you or any of your employees have cancer, hemophilia, kidney failure, or a pending surgery or have any ongoing medical conditions that cost more than $10,000 annually?
